May is Skin Cancer Awareness Month

The skin of your feet may be tougher than anywhere else on your body, but it's also exposed to more hazards—from foreign bodies to sun exposure when you forget the SPF. Don't forget your feet! Wearing sunscreen can help in prevention and cut down on UV rays.

If you've noticed a change in the skin on your feet or ankles, make an appointment with us today. And if you sustain an injury, especially if you have diabetes, get in touch.
